

Proclamation 18,059

MAR 28 2023

BECKY LANDRUM
County Clerk, Hunt County, Tex.
By

WHEREAS, Cheyenne Little's life was tragically taken April 14th, 2021. Her death is the first publicly acknowledge Fentanyl Poisoning death in Hunt County; and

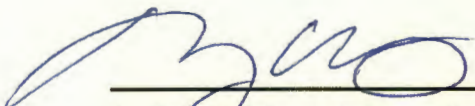

WHEREAS, in order to honor their daughter's legacy, Cheyenne's family has created weare3FP.org, Fiercely Fighting Fentanyl Poisoning to bring awareness to the deadly effects of fentanyl poisoning; and

WHEREAS, opening the eyes of our community to this deadly drug may prevent one death. In hopes of keeping parents and loved ones from experiencing the same deep grief and pain, then Cheyenne's death will not be in vain; and

WHEREAS, encourage all our citizens to help spread the message that fentanyl poisoning is coming after our children, and it is up to us to do our due diligence to expose its lethal dangers.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, Commissioner's Court of Hunt County, Texas, do hereby proclaim "April 14th, 2023, as Fentanyl Poisoning Awareness Day".

"DON'T CHEY AWAY IT'S NOT A LITTLE PROBLEM FENTANYL POISONING AWARENESS DAY"

Judge Bobby W. Stovall

County Clerk Becky Landrum

Commissioner Mark Hutchins

Commissioner David Monroe

Commissioner Phillip Martin

Commissioner Steven Harrison

